Tornadoes, Accompanied by Hail and Rain, Cause $1-day—Illinois Hard Hit

Aid Is Rushed

Stricken Areas Get Doctors, Nurses and Medical Supplies from Red Cross

By The Associated Press.
Five tornado-strafed midwestern states counted 27 persons killed and nearly 250 injured today. Unofficial estimates of the damage passed the $1,000,000 mark. Hundreds were homeless.
The twister storms, laden with hail and torrential rain, struck latest in central Illinois, where at least 10 were known dead.
The hardest hit was southeastern Kansas, where seven, including three children, were killed.
The Kansas storm struck about 2000 yesterday. It started in northeastern Oklahoma; later shifted into southern Missouri.
Five were known dead in Missouri corns.

About sundown what apparently was a separate storm twisted across Illinois from the southeast, killing one to earth in the Pekin area. Rushville and Astoria also were hard hit.

Another twister lashed at Har-ber Springs, Ark., killing four persons. Then it swung up through southeastern Missouri, accounting for three of Missouri's dead at Poplar Bluff. An earlier Arkansas blow had killed a woman at Conway.

The three-mile wide Illinois storm left an estimated 85 persons injured.

Pekin Gets Aid.
Doctors and nurses were rushed to Pekin, where more than 250 houses were destroyed. The Pekin fire station and the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad depot and roundhouse were demolished.
About 150 passenger and freight cars were strewn in fragments alongside tracks.

Total damage in Illinois was not estimated, but Police Chief Paul Smith of Alton, where the storm struck later, said damage there would exceed $200,000.

Columbus, Kas., bore the brunt of the Kansas-Oklahoma-Arkansas-Missouri storm. All seven Kansas known dead were killed there. A strip ten blocks wide was virtually leveled. At least 50 buildings were destroyed and 100 persons were injured.

Sheriff Fred Sinkin of Cherokee county said 200 families were homeless. He estimated damage at Columbus at $100,000 but other sources said it would be at least $300,000.

Quick work by teachers saved 100 pupils at Highland grade school in Columbus. The building was virtually wrecked. Near Chetopa, Kas., Miss Virginia Bappington led 20 pupils out of her rural school and ordered them to lie in a ditch. The building was heavily damaged.

Three Inches of Rain Three inches of rain added a threat of floods in Oklahoma and Kansas. There were no fatalities in Oklahoma, but 15 persons were injured in the five counties the storm was injured.

The Kansas storm swept on from southwest to central Missouri. A farmer was killed in Boone county, Missouri, when his home collapsed, and a woman was killed at Lebanon when struck by lightning.

Mexican Party

New Faction Arises to Carry on Mexico for Mexicans Program Today

Mexico City, March 31 (AP)—A new "party of the revolution" came into being today to carry on the nation's Mexico for Mexicans program, looking toward a socialist state.

The new party of laborers, farmers and soldiers is an international government party, taking over the organization of President Cardenas' former national revolutionary party. Barba Gonzalez, head of the old party, was named president of the new.

Its proposed platform, presented in convention last night, carries a call for "progressive nationalization of big industry" (like expropriation of the $400-000,000 foreign-owned oil industry).

A special session of Congress will take up the oil question April 11. It was ascertained that before then at least ten senators were preparing to ask the president how Mexico would treat foreign markets for the oil; what would the government do about the mining industry, likely to be hard hit by United States suspension of silver purchases and a drop in the world price; and how would Mexico pay for the oil

Six Die When Tornado Rips Through Town

ings. This aerial view shows one section in the western part of the town, showing how the tornado smashed buildings into splinters.

Business Men Decide TodaySays State Winner If Bear Mountain Bridge Is Bought

Albany, March 31 (Special)— Declaring that the Bear Mountain Bridge could "certainly stand on its own feet," State Comptroller Morris S. Tremaine today issued a statement asserting that the State of New York would be nearly one million dollars better off by purchasing now the Bear Mountain Bridge at "something less than $3,200,000, instead of waiting 17 years for it to revert to the state."

"That is the primary reason why I have written urging Governor Lehman to sign the bill permitting the State Bridge Authority to issue bonds to purchase the Bear Mountain Bridge," continued Comptroller Tremaine.

Up to the present time, he added, there has been no definite offer to sell or buy the bridge, "so that the loose charge, made under constitutional protection by Assemblyman Emerson D. Pite, of Poughkeepsie, during the debate on the bill, to the effect that somebody was getting some velvet, can have no basis in fact because there are no facts on which to base it."

"If Professor Pite has any specific evidence to support his charge," Tremaine asserted, "it is his duty to report it to the proper prosecuting authorities."

Supporting his statement of the million-dollar benefit to the state, Comptroller Tremaine pointed to the bridge's previous record of earnings, which were more than $450,000 last year and have been up to nearly $700,000 in some years.

But basing gross receipts upon last year's earnings (and the present tendency is increasing) of approximately $454,000, Mr. Tremaine pointed out that the net charges against this, under state management, would be $189,000 amortization charges to pay off the bonds in 17 years, and $40-000 operation and maintenance charges, leaving an annual net income of $225,000, which is equal to a 7 per cent return (in a 3 1/2 per cent market) on $3-200,000, which the bill authorizes the State Bridge Authority to raise by bond issue.

Rabbi Asks Clear Path for Contacts

New Rochelle, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—Rabbi Abraham Nowak, intermediary in the kidnapping of Peter Levine, 12, who disappeared February 24 on his way home from school, disclosed today that he had refused to keep an appointment with the kidnapers "because I felt that our meeting could not be exclusive and without interference."

"I said on February 28, when I was given instructions as to how I could contact the kidnapers, and I repeat now, that I shall not be in the confidence of the kidnapers," Rabbi Nowak declared.

Rabbi Nowak referred to "interference," although at the time police and agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation professed to maintain "hands off" the case.
"I still stand ready to act," said the rabbi. "If the abductors contact me again I shall be glad to serve with the assurance that it will be exclusively between the parents, the abductors and myself. The contact will be made on that basis or not at all."

Rabbi Nowak said a "voice with a foreign accent" directed him over the telephone to look in a lot near his synagogue. His secretary looked and found a typewritten ransom note demanding $50,000 and a penciled note in the boy's handwriting appealing to his father to pay.

The father, Murray Levine, a New York lawyer, said, however, that he has been unable to re-establish contact.

An unidentified announcer ended a commercial radio broadcast (CBS) last night with the statement: "We have been asked to make the following announcement: 'We are ready to follow your instructions, B231, but we have to proceed by automobile because of weather conditions.'" "No comment," said radio officials to all questions. But an advertising agency announced that an intermediary would be introduced on the air at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Governor Signs Bill
For Sauerites By-Pass

Governor Lehman today signed the bill of Assemblyman Lee B. Maillier of Cornwall providing for the Sauerites by-pass.

For some time there has been considerable agitation among the residents of Sauerites to have the state build a by-pass for 9-W traffic through the village. The present 9-W route leading from Kingston into Sau-erites is a narrow, winding road with several sharp turns and a steep grade leading down to the bridge across the Esopus creek.

During the summer months when traffic is at the peak there is considerable congestion in the main streets of Sauerites and that is another reason why a by-pass has been advocated.

That Kingston had received honorable mention in the 1937 national traffic safety contest was the news conveyed to Mayor C. J.
Helselman in a telegram received this morning from the National Safety Council in Chicago.

The telegram read: "Your city has been awarded honorable mention in 1937 National Traffic Safety Contest in recognition of your splendid safety efforts.
Heartfelt congratulations to you and your citizens."

H. C. Davis Dies

New York, March 31 (AP)—Harley Courtland Davis, 72, a former advertising consultant who 25 years ago created the character of "Addison Sims" of Seattle, died at his home yesterday.

"Addison Sims," a character in a series of advertisements for a memory training course, became a by-word in the nation's conversation. Davis took the name from the late Admiral William S. Sims, war-time commander of the United States fleet.

—Prizes for Winners

Despite the fact that the weather-man crossed up the Kingston Business Men's Association and brought a rain storm early this morning instead of the sun-shining which had prevailed for the past few days, it was decided to hold the Spring Opening Display this evening at 8 o'clock, as scheduled.

This decision was arrived at following a meeting at 11 o'clock when President James Rowe met with several of the business men for the purpose of getting the consensus of opinion as to whether the Spring Display should be held as scheduled or postponed until Friday.

The decision to hold the Spring Opening Display tonight as scheduled came after a consultation with the weather forecast for Friday. With "rain and colder" predicted for Friday the business men decided to go on with the plans for holding the opening tonight.

Please the Public.
Rather than disappoint a large crowd by a two day postponement and rather than risk worse weather Friday, it was decided to hold the opening tonight. Even though it may not be a bright spring evening the merchants have made such elaborate preparations for the Spring Opening tonight that the public may well risk the weather for a tour of the shopping centers to look over the displays. This year it is predicted that the displays will be even more elaborate than in the past and with keen competition being shown by several of the stores which are hotly contesting for the three prize cups, the public can be assured of displays well worth coming out to see.

Seven Dead, More Expected, Blame
Serum For Cancer

Four Under Treatment After Injections of Ensol Cause Symptoms of Feared Tetanus Infection

Orlando, Fla., March 31 (AP)— Physicians said today they feared deaths among persons who had been treated with a cancer serum might mount to ten.

Mrs. F. E. Mooney, 63, of Winter Park, Fla., died this morning.
Six other women died early yesterday.

Two men and a woman—E. S.
Bolte, C. S. Pore and Mrs. Lydia Morrison, all of Orlando—were reported near death from a tetanus infection (lockjaw) in hospitals here today. Another patient, Mrs. Oia Hall of Orlando, was under treatment after developing symptoms of tetanus.

Dr. T. A. Neal said the seven persons who have died and the four now in hospitals had received the cancer treatment serum injections at his clinic. He added that other persons may have received injections from the same bottle of serum but he had not been able to determine definitely.

A coroner's jury met today and requested Dr. H. C. Connell of Kingston, Ont., Canada, inventor of the serum called Ensol, to come here to aid in investigations being conducted by county, state and federal medical authorities.

The jury then received its hearing until physicians report on an autopsy performed on Mrs. Mooney.
Doctors said the report might not be ready for several days.

Dr. Neal and Dr. Connell both said they felt sure the bottle of serum from which the victims had been given injections somehow had become contaminated.

Dictatorship Not His Plan Or His Desire, Roosevelt Says in Letter to FriendBritish Formula Asks Withdrawal
Of Troops in Spain

Much Depends Upon How Long Barcelona Could Hold Back Rebels from Deciding War Issue

(By The Associated Press)

The guiding subcommittee of the Spanish nonintervention committee, representing major European powers, gathered today and received a new British formula for withdrawal of foreign soldiers from the 20-month-old civil war.

It was the group's first meeting in two months and the problem was much the same as a year and a half ago, except that the war itself was much closer to settling the question than hickering representatives of Britain, France, Germany, Italy and Soviet Russia.

Much depended upon how long the Barcelona government could hold back insurgent armies stabling eastward at the heart of government territory. Within a few days, perhaps, no formula for withdrawal of foreign soldiery will be needed.

That seemed to be the view of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's strategists as they directed twin thrusts eastward—one against Barcelona and the other toward the coast southeast of the capital.

Informed persons said Britain proposed a "new formula" for deciding when belligerent rights should be granted to the warring factions and restoration of control on Spanish frontiers.

The Chamberlain government was eager for quick action because it faced an opposition motion of censure on its Spanish policy in the House of Commons Monday.

The French Popular Front cabinet hampered by strikes and political tension, delayed consideration of its financial reform plan to let political opposition cool. Cabinet sessions called for tomorrow were put over until Saturday, which postponed parliamentary debate until Sunday.

railway sector of the central front.

Mayor Is Member
Shoe Shine Club

When Mayor C. J. Helselman opened his mail in his office in the city hall this morning he found that another honor had been conferred on him when a membership card dropped out of an envelope.

The card stated that the mayor was now an honorary member of the Shoe Shine Club of the Department of Recreation.

The mayor expressed himself as highly pleased on the honor the club had conferred upon him, and he carefully placed the membership card with his many other membership cards in his wallet.

Townsend Suit Filled

Chicago, March 31 (AP)—Twenty-four men and women accused of infringing the reputation of Dr.
Francis E. Townsend and other members of his old age pension movement were named in a $27-000,000 damage suit filed in federal court today. The action was brought by Huston H. Marks of Denver, and other supporters of Townsend Plan.

Hendaye, France, at the Spanish Frontier, March 31 (AP)—Insurgent Generalissimo Franco today aimed twin thrusts toward the Mediterranean and deadly severance of government Spain.

The central army worked its way through the suburbs of Lerida, ancient city and fortress, 50 miles from Barcelona and but 45 miles from the coastal city of Tarragona.

The right wing, 42 miles to the south, menaced Gandesa, an outpost also on the road to Tarragona. This force was slightly closer to the coast than the army investing Lerida.

Insurgents were attempting to surround and isolate the government garrison in Lerida, the castle that defends the Segre river valley which has been described as the "gateway" to Barcelona.

The city was virtually deserted by civilians. The defenders had blown up electric plants inside its walls, and yesterday a smoke pall lay about it.

The government blew up a

Snell Charges Democrats Would Pack Civil Service Ranks with "Faithful"

Washington, March 31 (AP)— Foes and friends of the administration's reorganization bill termed "a perfect fake" and "an admirable statement" today the letter in which President Roosevelt asserted "I have no inclination to be a dictator."

Representative Snell (R.-N.
Y.), the House Republican leader, used the "fake" expression when he told reporters the President's letter to an unnamed correspondent was "purely an effort to get the front page" and "get people's minds off" the controversial reorganization bill.

Snell added that "I don't see what there was to get people up in the middle of the night for.
He's said that a million times."

Releases Letter

Warm Springs, Ga., March 31 (AP)—President Roosevelt, charging organized opponents of his government reorganization program had "planted bogies under every body," asserted in a letter made public today he had "no inclination to be a dictator."

"As you well know, I am as much opposed to an American dictatorship as you are, for three simple reasons:

"(a) I have no inclination to be a dictator.

"(b) I have none of the qualifications which would make me a successful dictator.

"(c) I have too much historical background and too much knowledge of existing dictatorships to make me desire any form of dictatorship for a democracy like the United States of America."

No Explanation

The letter was made public by Secretary Marvin McIntyre shortly before 1 a. m. (C. S. T.). There was no explanation for the late release except that the President made up his mind to issue it before midnight and it required almost two hours to prepare it for the press.

The President made his decision while resting from a 120-mile motor trip to and from Fort Benning late yesterday to inspect the troops and equipment of the noted infantry post. Later today he planned to lunch with the officers at the marine camp here and then pay a visit to a resettlement project in Pine Mountain Valley.

The name of the President's correspondent regarding reorganization was withheld because McIntyre said in a prefatory statement "he did not write for publicity purposes."

Pitcher Chosen

Senate Republican Selected as Floor Leader for Constitutional Convention

New York, March 31 (AP)— Perley A. Pitcher, state senator from Jefferson and Oswego counties and senate minority leader, has been selected as Republican floor leader for the state constitutional convention opening in Albany next week.

He was picked at a meeting of state Republican leaders and convention delegates here last night.
Among them were Chief Judge Frederick E. Crane of the Court of Appeals, state Republican president, and William S. Murray, state Republican chairman.

The group, meeting behind closed doors, also discussed organization of the convention and the creation of 30 or more committees which will give preliminary consideration to proposals coming before the convention.

Democratic headquarters yesterday called party delegates to attend a conference at the state capitol on the eve of the convention's opening. U. S. Senator Robert Wagner will be the Democratic floor leader.

The convention will have before it for guidance a 12-volume study of state problems compiled by a non-partisan committee appointed by Governor Herbert H. Lehman.

High Falls School Notes

The following were neither absent nor tardy in High Falls school for the month: William Makely, Lawrence Coddington, Ted Davenport, Richard Davenport, Richard Girard, Richard Smith, Eli Sutton, Betty Farla, Sara Sampson, Mary Smith, Jeanette McCall, Marie Stokes, Anita Abrahamson, Helen Ayers, Shirley Ayers, Jane Briggs, Patsy Davenport, Leola Hendricks, Gloria Protoss, Mavis Schoonmaker, Frances Steen, Ruth Williams, Thelma Williams, Dorothy Gray, Kenneth Coddington, Thomas Farla, Norman Grossman, George Hoffman, Lawrence Miller, Edward Sampson, Philip Schoonmaker, Clarence Smith, Walter Smith, Donald Williams, Cecil DuBois, Adolf DuBois, Lois Coddington, Carolyn Haselmayer, Blanch Henkin, Matilda Sampson, Virginia Conn, Evelyn May, Edna Countryman, Dora Quick, Della McCall, Florence Ransom, Billy Briggs, Donald James, Robert Van Kleeck, James Blinford, Raymond Schoonmaker, Raymond Smith, Billy Sampson, Charles Stokes, Clayton Sutton, Dennis Williams and Charles Hart.

These pupils handed in the most correct papers for their grades during the past month: Primary, Marie Steen; first grade, Sara Sampson and Kathleen Quick; second grade, Betty Farla and Donald Vanderlark; third grade, Helen Ayers; fourth grade, Frances Steen; fifth grade, Ruth Williams; sixth grade, Dorothy Jacobs, Edna Countryman and Dorothy Tannenbaum; seventh grade, Raymond Smith; eighth grade, Matilda Sampson.

The school has lost six pupils during the month. John Feuerbach has moved to Hurleyville; Mortimer Isaacs has gone to New York city; and Janet and Jane Williams and Cecil and Adolf DuBois have entered The Clove school because they are now residing in that district.

There has been a great deal of sickness during the month. Nora Countryman, who had pneumonia, has now returned to school. Joan Countryman and Alvin Swella are still at home convalescing from the same disease. Many have had serious trouble with their ears. Martin Eckert has returned to school after being absent for some time with ear trouble and Roger Terwilliger is still at home with a similar complaint.

Early in the month the teachers and pupils went to Kingston to see "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

Considerable progress is being made with the dental work. The teeth have already been examined by Dr. Wolf of Kingston. Pupils are now waiting for an appointment to have some work done. The examination showed the great need of this kind of work. The Mothers' Club sponsored this project.

The next meeting of the Mothers' Club will be April 13, at 3 o'clock in the school library.

The Easter vacation will begin April 14 and continues until April 25.

When a cattle truck, carrying six cows, two bulls and two calves, collided with a broad truck, Elmiraviewed a cattle stampede. ICKES VS. HITLER.

There is a curious situation regarding that shipment of helium from Texas to Germany which was arranged for last year, after the Hindenburg had burned up.
Arrangements were made by the German government for obtaining from the helium wells near Houma, about 20,000,000 cubic feet of this non-inflammable gas, enough to fill three big Zeppelins. A German ship arrived several months ago with containers to take away the gas. It was supposed that all the formalities had been complied with, but there developed a great deal of unexpected red tape. So far, not a can of the stuff has been shipped.

The matter has been a mystery, but lately an interesting explanation is given. Although various governmental authorities had sanctioned the sale of the helium, the gas itself happens to be under the authority of Harold Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, and it is said that Ickes simply refuses to give his O. K. He is influenced apparently by recent developments in Germany, and doesn't trust Hitler, and is afraid that, regardless of pledges, the German government would use the gas for military purposes.

Between those two stubborn men it will be interesting to see how the problem works out.
American sympathies will probably be with Secretary Ickes.
There was popular support last year for selling Germany the gas, but Hitler's recent policy, particularly his seizure of Austria, has aroused general distrust of him in this country.

TAX-EXEMPT MILLIONS

Before Congress finishes its present tax legislation, surely it should do something to spread the present tax burden more equitably. The most obvious way to do so is to apply the federal tax laws to more than 2,000,000 persons now wholly exempt from such taxes. These are such public servants as state, county and city employees, school superintendents and teachers; officers and professors, and even athletic coaches, of state colleges and universities; judges, state attorneys, prosecutors, etc., from the Supreme Court down; sheriffs, police chiefs, policemen, and so on.

Most of these citizens would not have to pay any federal tax even if they were eligible, under the present rates. But those with the higher incomes would and should pay, as a matter of fairness to all the people in private positions now paying more than their share.
Such a vast list of exemptions makes the burden too hard on the others.

This comment of course implies no improper conduct on the part of the officeholders and other public employees now exempt.
Their exemption comes from a technicality, resulting from a Supreme Court decision rendered many years ago. There is reason to believe that if Congress enacts another general measure now, covering such cases, the courts will uphold it.

RAZZING STATESMEN

David Low, famous British cartoonist, recently paid his respects to his country's foreign policy with a cartoon in the London Evening Standard. He pictured a party at the country estate of Viscount and Lady Astor, held as a celebration "to mark our leader's recent successes."

Lady Astor, wearing a military tunic and decorated with the German Iron Cross, is shown saluting Hitler as a procession of old women march past at the goose-step.
Other noted Britishers are in view, including George Bernard Shaw, who is crawling on all fours ahead of the marchers. The editors of two of the Astor newspapers are lifting tankards and singing the Horst Wessel song. Lord Malifax who succeeded Anthony Eden as Foreign Secretary sits on the lawn while some one reads Hitler's "Mein Kampf" aloud to him.

There are more details, but these give the idea. The cartoon probably will not alter the British government's policy, but neither will the government do anything drastic to the cartoonist. His right to criticize the government in this forcible way is not challenged. It is part of the freedom of speech and press which is guaranteed in both Great Britain and the United States. The authoritarian governments regard such freedom as one of the weaknesses of the democracies. We consider it evidence of democracy's strength and essential to its survival.

SCIENCES IGNORED

It is a strange fact that new discoveries and inventions in medicine and the more mechanical sciences are accepted by the public without question and are promptly used. New ideas from the social sciences, on the other hand, are generally received coldly, with superstition and prejudice. Their application is resisted so strongly that social progress lags far behind progress in other fields.

We have the knowledge to correct most of our social ills, but we lack what an authority calls "Social acceptance." He adds that man "gives the impression of heading blindly toward the destruction of what he has created." What is the cause of this reluctance to make social and economic discoveries useful? Is education at fault? Is it natural human selfishness and greed? Or merely slow-mindedness in a field where we have long accepted old ways as natural and permanent?

That Body of Dours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

(Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act)
WHY ON RHEUMATISM.

Notwithstanding that rheumatism is the perhaps oldest known disease, there are now as many cases of rheumatism in proportion to the population as at any time in history.

It is a fact, of course, that while the cause of many cases of rheumatism is unknown, a certain number are known to be due to infection—teeth and tonsils—and the removal of this infection prevents further damage to joints although the damage already done cannot be completely corrected.

That climate, habits of living, stress and strain are factors in causing rheumatism is now admitted and that heat and the use of salicylate drugs give relief is definitely known. But there are more causes than those noted above and that there should be more methods of treatment and prevention available is the opinion of research workers on rheumatism everywhere.

So large is the number of rheumatics in Great Britain and so great is the loss of time from work due to rheumatism, that what is known as the Empire Rheumatic Council has been formed. This council is determined to make a "relentless war on rheumatic diseases." Rheumatism in the past has been considered a "natural" disease in Great Britain and not enough attention has been paid to it. But as rheumatism is responsible for at least one sixth of all the illness which means in addition a great amount of time lost by workers, something must be done about it; hence the formation of this Empire Rheumatic Council.

The reason that rheumatism had just been treated as a "necessary evil" was because the victims did not usually die as a direct result of an attack and because there was no single cause for rheumatism as there was for tuberculosis and many other ailments. Thus such different conditions as the following were blamed for some cases of rheumatism: stresses and strains, prolonged crowded travel, not enough exercise, nature of occupation particularly where there were repeated movements which called for overuse of some muscles and neglect of all the rest. Most cases were found among metal workers, transport workers, mine workers, building workers and clerical workers in that order.

The Boxwood Barrier

By BLANCHE SMITH FERGUSON

The Story So Far: Judith Goodloe has the code of an old Maryland family to live up to. Reuben Oliver, who has pulled himself up by his bootstraps, has wealth and ethics of his own making. Desperately loving Judith, Reuben prepares to wait when the Goodloe finances collapse. Gary Brent, the man Judith loves, has left her.
So Judith becomes engaged to Reuben after making clear that she does not love him.

Chapter 15

'Due For A Licking' REUBEN tried to prove that he was a better man than Gary in the only way he could—by showing things upon her. Each day brought wonderful gifts for Judith. Her favorite of them all, an Irish mare with foal—

"The Hunt Cup is as good as ours next year," Reuben said his hands in anticipation. "Won't it be great to have it under the roof once more?"
Life stretched a pleasant path for Jim's walking these days.
Money—the one thing the Good-loe's lacked; came so easily, so magically, just when it was needed, that they accepted it almost as a matter of course, and forgot the day he fell from his horse, Amanda's barbed thrusts the feeling that they were merely tolerant of him, had undoubtedly went from his less sure of himself. He went forward slowly now like one whose sight is not quite true.

Clem's breakfast arrived. He was noisily busy for several minutes. After he poured a second cup of coffee he said "You're wondering what brought this?"
Reuben nodded. There were few words wasted between these two.
"Unless you come West as quick as straight as the crow flies —it's bad news, Reuben! I hate like the dickens to tell you!"
"Shoot!" lighting a cigarette.
"The Latic Justice is going dry on us."

'The Devil To Pay'
REUBEN held the match in his fingers until it burned them.
"It couldn't be. That pocket goes through to China."
"I was sure of it when I advised you to sink your money in it."
"There's something wrong with the drills," Reuben said evenly but fear clutched him like a giant fist with Hugo. Praised rhododendrons!

"I'm so glad your home is here, Reuben. I wouldn't marry you if I had to leave this valley. I couldn't bear to go away."
"It's going to be heaven!" Reuben said and believed it. Never again would he hear the call of the wild, or feel the urge for adventure. For purple twilight vast expanses of white snow. The small of bacon cooking in the open.
A lone wolf's call. The sound of cracking ice, rushing waters—roar of logs sliding down—Noise.
Shouts. Struggle—all that was behind him. Just to live here in this quiet valley with Judith, to watch her vivid face, to touch her—

The whole world took on new meaning and felt strongly in accord with his secrets. Every blade of grass, the leaves on the trees, the water in the creek, the fleecy clouds in the sky held out a promise of what life could and would be.
June lengthened into July. July slipped into August perfumed with the ripened harvest. If the reports from his banker and broker pointed out to Reuben that he was not as wealthy as he had thought, he reminded himself such fluctuations were to be expected.
Before he came to Maryland the loss of $5 would have sent him raving over the coals of his affairs like a frenzied wild cat. Now, lulled by the serene valley, blissful with the new element in his life, he let things drift until the serpent entered his paradise.

'Broken Down Aristocrat' IT CAME in the form of Clem Rogers.
Clem, fat, florid, perspiring, arrived one morning just as Reuben was sitting down to breakfast.
"Hi, Reuben, you son of a linker!
Hope you've got an extra cup of coffee in the old pot!"
"Clem! You old river rat! It's grand to see you! How are you?"
"Well, as you'd be! Clem devasted himself of coat, collar, tie and flung all into a nearby chair.
"I'm hungry as a pile driver."
Reuben rang for the colored boy.
"Coffee, bacon—How will you have your eggs, Clem?"
"Four, sunny side up." Clem ordered, "and get a move on you."
He looked critically around the dining room with his heavy occulars. "Cissy says this is supposed to be some dug-out—I dunno!" doubtfully.

"Suits me," Reuben said.
"Old runs usually prove expensive. Cheaper to tear down and build up new."
Reuben did not argue this point.
"How's Cissy?"
"Mad as a March hare. Flying like an eagle and spending money faster than a horse can trot."

ST. REMY
St. Remy, March 30.—Sunday services: Sunday School at 1:30 o'clock. Preaching by the pastor, the Rev. C. P. Mayskens, at 2:30 o'clock. All are welcome to these services.

A number of young people attended the Clintonville C. E. on Sunday night.
Mrs. Serena Freer visited friends at New Paltz this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruge of Kingston were Sunday guests of the Ellsworth family.
Mrs. E. Koch has returned home from her visit to New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crispell of Binghamton and Mrs. Sarah Pomeroy of Kingston called at the Ellsworth home on Sunday.
The Ladies' Aid Society will hold its April meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Harry Ellsworth, on Thursday, April 7, at 2:30 p. m. The hostesses will be Mrs. Harry Ellsworth and Mrs.

He pushed back his bushy gray hair and looked at his host from eyes not unlike his daughter's. "So you're getting married?"
"In 27 days."
"Humph!" To a broken down aristocrat!
"To the only woman I ever wanted to marry."
"Humph!" Clem reached for his coat, took out a well seasoned pipe, looked at it speculatively. "Love can play havoc with a fellow.
Better be sure as shooting before you leap."

"I'm sure."
"How do you know you are?"
Clem hitched his chair closer. "It's none of my business and I wish you luck, but I'm giving some advice too."
"Go ahead."

"I'm a fool to do it," sagely, "but I've seen quite a few lads, who made a couple of fly-by-night millions, come East, break their banks and their hearts over a woman."
"I won't do that, Clem."
"The heck you won't! You're different already."
"How?" surprised.
"Dunno—exactly. You were so cocky as all out o'doors back home."

Reuben smiled. "I was younger." But he sensed a vague truth in Clem's criticism. Judith's mild ridicule the day he fell from his horse, Amanda's barbed thrusts
whose sight is not quite true.

was noisily busy for several minutes. After he poured a second cup
words wasted between these two.
as straight as the crow flies
the dickens to tell you!"
"Shoot!" lighting a cigarette.

fingers until it burned them.
through to China."
"I was sure of it when I advised you to sink your money in
it."
"There's something wrong with
fear clutched him like a giant
dendrons!

"I'm so glad your home is here, Reuben. I wouldn't marry you if I
bear to go away."
"It's going to be heaven!" Reuben said and believed it. Never again would he hear the call of
small of bacon cooking in the open.
of logs sliding down—Noise.
this quiet valley with Judith, to

meaning and felt strongly in ac-
of grass, the leaves on the trees,
ise of what life could and would be.
June lengthened into July. July
fluctuations were to be expected.
raving over the coals of his affairs
like a frenzied wild cat. Now,
serpent entered his paradise.

Rogers.
Clem, fat, florid, perspiring, ar-
was sitting down to breakfast.
"Hi, Reuben, you son of a linker!
"Clem! You old river rat! It's
"Well, as you'd be! Clem de-
and flung all into a nearby chair.
"I'm hungry as a pile driver."
Reuben rang for the colored boy.
"Coffee, bacon—How will you have your eggs, Clem?"
dining room with his heavy oc-
culars. "Cissy says this is supposed
doubtfully.

"Suits me," Reuben said.
"Old runs usually prove expensive. Cheaper to tear down and build up new."
"How's Cissy?"
"Mad as a March hare. Flying

NEW YORK—It seems to me that the art galleries in New York are defeating their purpose in patterned themselves after funeral

As I understand it, artists paint pictures to make money. The funca show-window and bring the merchandise into view of the buyer.

Costliest Stage Production—“The Miracle,” the play which opened at the Century theater in New York city on January 15, 1934, was the costliest production ever presented on the American stage, says Collier's Weekly. Before a ticket was sold for this drama, requiring eight principals and 700 supernumeraries, the entire interior of the gigantic theater, including the seats, was made to resemble the inside of a large Gothic cathedral at a cost of $400,000.

Tremaine Urges Purchase—Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP).—State Comptroller Morris S. Tremaine believes immediate purchase of the Bear Mountain Bridge would benefit New York state by nearly $1,000,000. Tremaine revealed last night he had written Governor Lehman urging him to sign a bill permitting the state bridge authority to issue bonds to purchase the bridge at once for $3,200,000 instead of waiting for its automatic reversion to state ownership 17 years hence. His statement came shortly after Prof. Emerson D. Tate of Vassar College, Republican assemblyman from Dutchess county, had urged the governor to veto the measure.

Entire Cast Chosen For St. John's Play

This evening at 7:30 the cast for the St. John's Young People's Fellowship play, “Among The Stars,” will meet again at the home of its director, Mrs. Bertrand Bishop, on Jefferson avenue to rehearse. On Friday evening all in the first act will rehearse.

The play begins at Castle Heights. An old maid, Amanda Cecilia Bibblesnuff and her brother, Sigmund Alfred Bibblesnuff, played by Pollyanna Smith and King Bogardus, are the rightful owners who, through a will, must spend all their money in a happy-go-lucky fashion. The initial incident concerns the employing of a lady in waiting, Ethlyn Burgess, portrayed by Virginia St. Leger through the help of her journalist friend, Frederick Tierney. The real fun comes when Muggs Kibbon (Vic Smith), a New York gangster, visits the home to seek some valuable jewelry. But he runs up against Tierney who later locks the robber in an upstairs room. Then the rest of the action comes at once through the entrance in the play of five movie people who are supposed to shoot a scene at Castle Heights. Mistaking the cinema folks for more gangsters, the entire household, the place becomes a bedlam with one person accusing another of attempting to rob Sigmund Bibblesnuff of his “stars.” However, everything turns out all right for each one concerned when the police forces of the state come to the scene.

Following Sunday's practice, Mrs. Bishop announced that the full cast for this production had been completed and it is as follows:

Amanda Cecilia Bibblesnuff, an old maid Pollyanna Smith Sigmund Alfred Bibblesnuff, an eccentric gentleman King Bogardus Gussie Tweddies, the cook of Castle Heights Phyllis Craft Ethlyn Burgess, the journalist and lady in waiting Virginia St. Leger Orchid Dew, motion picture star Thelma Tranker Heather Blossom, motion picture star Dorothy Schiavone Clarence Rudd, motion picture star Louis Every Reginald Wheaton, motion picture star Jack St. Leger Muggs Kibbon, New York gangster Victor Smith Frederick Tierney, the butler and newspaperman Jack Sharot Officer Swiggle Harry St. Leger Officer Dunke Art Lynch Duke Van Peel, motion picture director Irwin Thomas

Former Woodstock Caretaker Held on Charge of Larceny

John Hart, 30, who gave his address as 4305 Broadway, New York city, was arraigned before Justice Wallace H. Shulke Wednesday afternoon on a charge of petit larceny, it being alleged that he took a radio from one of the cottages belonging to Fred Ziegler at The Pines, near Woodstock. Hart asked for an adjournment and the case was put over till Friday, April 1, the defendant being committed to the Ulster county jail.

Hart had been employed by Ziegler as a caretaker at The Pines, but left in February. The loss of the radio was discovered on March 26 and reported to Trooper Walter Keefe. Hart was arrested in New York city and brought to Kingston by Trooper Keefe and Deputy Sheriff Vredenburg, being held on the petit larceny charge.

Following the loss of the radio Mr. Ziegler made a further check-up and discovered that a number of other articles, including a cash register and a typewriter, from the cottages, including a cash register and a typewriter, were missing. Further investigation of the case is being made by Trooper Metzger of the B. C. I.

Wealthy Sultan Divorces Wife

Singapore, March 31 (AP)—The wealthy Sultan Ibrahim of Johore divorced his beautiful Scotch wife today and announced plans to spend his birthday, September 9, in the United States with "my many American friends."

The sultana, the former Mrs. Helen Wilson, was said to have received an allowance of $5,000 ($25,000) annually and $225,000 in jewelry.

The divorce was by Mohammedan law. The Sultan merely repeated the word "talak" (get out) four times.

F. T. Moore Dead

Hartford, Conn., March 31 (AP)—Frederick Thomas Moore, first vice president of Colt's Patent Firearms Company and a leading machine gun expert, died in Hartford Hospital today at the age of 62.

Steel rail now in general use on the railroads is 39 feet long, which is a length well adapted for transportation on a freight car.

The funeral will be held from his late residence this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rabbi Isaac J. Telcher will officiate. Burial will be in Agudas Achaim cemetery.

Edward Van Demark of Kerhonkson died at his home, Wednesday, aged 82 years. Surviving are his wife, two sons, Norman and Elmer of Kerhonkson; one step-daughter, Mrs. Alice Scher, of Ellenville; and several nieces and nephews. Funeral at his late home Saturday at 2 p. m. Burial in Pine Bush cemetery. The Rev. David Achterkirch of Kerhonkson will conduct the services. Bearers will be Isaac Van Vleet, Alton Chrysler, Hebron Sheldon, Lorin Davis, Lesley Green, and Fletcher Turner, all members of A. J. Anderson Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.

J. Ezra Short, husband of the late Della Short, died on Wednesday in Schenectady. He is survived by two sons, Harold of Schenectady, and Edward of Schenectady, and a daughter, Mrs. Peter Leming, of Arkville, N. Y. Funeral services will be held at the Kukuk Memorial Funeral Home, 167 Tremper avenue on Saturday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment in Fairlawn cemetery, Jewett Center, N. Y. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 and from 7 to 9 in the evening.

Funeral services that were attended by relatives and large numbers of friends from here and other sections of the state and other states, took place this morning in the St. Peter's Church for the late John F. McTague, whose sudden and unexpected death occurred at his home early last Monday morning. A high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. Henry E. Herdegen. The Rev. John P. Neumann, was seated within the chancel during the services. The music of the Mass was directed by Fred Arthur Beich, while William Raible was the soloist. Following the services at the church the long funeral cortege proceeded to St. Peter's cemetery where in the family plot Mr. McTague was laid to rest. Father Herdegen, gave the final blessing. Casket bearers were, the Hon. Bernard A. Culliton, Edmund Netter, Matthew Flinnerty, Joseph Cragan, Fred Bunn, and Henry Sitzer. The Holy Name Society of St. Peter's assembled at the McTague home on Wednesday evening and led by Father Neumann recited the rosary for the repose of his soul. An unusually large number of floral tributes that completely filled the living room in which Mr. McTague's body rested, was received by his family. Large numbers of Mass cards were also presented by family friends and relatives. The floral and Mass card tributes together with other expressions of sympathy bespoke feelingly the esteem in which Mr. McTague was held.

At the Gordian Knot Alexander Gordius, a peasant, being chosen king of Phrygia, dedicated his wagon to Jupiter, and fastened the yoke to a beam with a rope of bark so ingeniously that no one could untie it. Alexander was told that "whoever undid the knot would reign over the whole East." "Well, then," said the conqueror, "it is thus I perform the task," and, so saying, he cut the knot in twain with his sword. Hence, to cut the Gordian knot is to get out of a difficult or awkward position by one decisive step, to solve a problem by a single brilliant stroke.

United Cut Rate Anniversary Sale

The sixth anniversary sale in conjunction with the Spring opening, uptown, is being operated by the United Cut Rate dry goods store, as advertised in The Freeman tonight. Mort Englander, proprietor of the store, says that the new shop operated as a part of the business, has bargains at attractive prices during the sale. Mr. Englander joined the uptown business group six years ago, coming here from Poughkeepsie. His present store is in the building formerly occupied by Candyland, where he has been situated for a year.

STONE RIDGE

Stone Ridge, March 31.—The Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Baker motored to Andes on Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Pine and daughters, Frances and Doris, visited relatives in High Falls on Sunday afternoon.

The Grange will hold their regular meeting in the Grange Hall on Monday evening. A surprise program will be in charge of Mrs. Isaac Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Service has as their house guests over the weekend, Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Cox of Maplewood, N. J.

At the congregational meeting in the Reformed Church on Tuesday evening plans were made for a rotary system of electing the three deacons and three elders and no officer can succeed himself. The main features of the Apple Blossom Festival were discussed and the following program was outlined for May 7, 10 a. m., a parade of all organizations of the village and nearby places, and of the schools. 11 o'clock, tour during which they will visit the following stone houses. Mrs. C. C. Hardenbergh, Miss Cantline, Library, Sally Tock's Shop-in-the-Garden, Reformed Dutch Church and the home of Dr. Chambers now owned by Edward Muller, Sr.

A display of antiques and old-fashioned quilts will be held in basement of the Reformed Church and tea will be served. At 3 p. m. and again at 7 o'clock the school children will give a Dutch program at the Reformed Church. At 6 o'clock a catered supper will be served in the Sunday School room of the M. E. Church and antiques will be on display.

Mrs. George Weeks was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Propper.

Arnold Jacobson and Fred Baker, Jr., were guests on Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sahler at Mountain Rest. Radella Van Demark is recovering from her recent operation for mastitis. Mr. and Mrs. Van Demark are returning from spending the winter in Kingston to their home in this place.

The cast will rehearse on Thursday evening at the M. E. Sunday School room. This play will be given April 7 and promises to be one of the best home talent entertainments presented in this locality. The proceeds are for general expenses of the churches on the Stone Ridge charge.

Elmer Roosa of Middletown is visiting his mother, Mrs. William Roosa, who is slowly recovering from her serious illness.

Mrs. Lester Kiersted and Mrs. Keonig were guests of Mrs. George Weeks on Wednesday afternoon.

Services at the M. E. Church will be as follows: Church School at 10:30 a. m., with Oscar Wood as superintendent. Divine worship at 11:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. F. G. Baker, will speak on the topic, "The Value of a Good Life".

Mrs. Koenig entertained several friends at her home on Thursday afternoon at a quilting. The Rev. F. G. Baker attended an official board meeting at Accord on Wednesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Sherman.

ROSENDALE
Rosedale, March 31.—The WPA rolls were increased in the Town of Rosendale last week by six men. The people of Tillson got another bad scare on Monday, when a brush and forest fire broke out on the eastern side of that village. With the aid of the Tillson Fire Co. it was put out in about three hours. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hasbrouck of Tillson, plan on moving to Stone Ridge late this summer. They are having the Hasbrouck homestead in that place remodeled and it is here they will reside. This will be more convenient for Mr. Hasbrouck, who conducts a trucking business in Stone Ridge.

Forbids Propaganda
Berne, March 31 (AP)—The national council, lower house of the Swiss parliament, today approved the revision of constitution of Canton of Geneva, which forbids Communist, Nazi or Fascist organizations in that canton (state).

Not His Plan To Be Dictator

day the President asserted at a press conference that State passage of the reorganization bill proved that body "cannot be purchased by organized telegrams based on direct misrepresentation."

In the communication today he recalled that when he proposed the legislation over a year ago all parties and factions agreed on the need of such a measure, but that a year later "a carefully manufactured partisan and political opposition to any reorganization had created a political issue—created it deliberately out of the whole cloth."

Examples of "Bogies"
As examples of the "bogies" he contended had been planted by the opposition, he said it had been charged that the army engineer corps was to be abolished "in spite of the fact" that Congress alone could determine who will do river and harbor work, and that the forestry service was to be "hamstrung—hamstrung I suppose by the best friend, forestry ever had in the United States."

He mentioned other like charges and added: "I cite these merely as examples of a score of equally silly nightmares conjured up at the instigation either of those who would restore the government to those who owned it between 1921 and 1933, or those who for one reason or another seek deliberately to wreck the present administration of the government of the United States."

Regarding Orders
Referring to the bill's provision making executive orders on budgeting subject to disapproval by congressional "joint" resolution within 60 days, the President said if such a resolution were passed he would "in the overwhelming majority of cases go along with carefully considered congressional action." He added: "I can think of no cases where the President would not gladly yield to a clear expression of congressional opinion."

In giving two "concent" reasons why the bill should be passed in the present form, he said a "concurrent" resolution turning down presidential orders—which some opponents have proposed—was questionable constitutionally because it was only an expression of congressional "sentiment" and could not repeal executive action taken in pursuance of law.

Various Forms
A "joint" resolution must be approved or rejected by the President, whereas a "concurrent" resolution does not go to him for action. Some opponents favor the "concurrent" form to prevent the possibility of a veto, thus forcing Congress to reject an executive order by a two-thirds vote.

In stating his second reason, the President referred to the "remote possibility" of a veto, adding: "I repeat that I visualize no such possibility between now and 1940 when the authority given is to end."

"Thus," his letter concluded, "you will see that charges of dictatorship are made out of the whole cloth—even if I wanted to be a dictator, which heaven knows, I do not."

The President said there were two methods of effecting a businesslike reorganization—"complex and haphazard legislation by the Congress" or by the Chief Executive doing it subject to disapproval by Congress.

He said he would have been willing to go along with the first method, but attempts by Congress to reorganize in the past had

Suit to Recover For Damages to Truck in Court

Two negligence actions were taken up for trial this morning in Supreme Court. Rosario Scandariato and his brother, Vito, bring action against N. C. Purdie Corporation and the driver of the defendant's trailer-truck to recover for damages to their Chevrolet truck, for 120 bushels of apples and for personal injuries which they suffered on December 13, 1937, when they alleged the tractor-truck crashed in the rear of their truck near Sloatsburg as they were proceeding to Newark market with a load of apples.

Rosario was the first witness called. He testified that he was the owner of the truck which his brother was driving. It cost over $1,300 in 1936. As they drove along route 17 south they were suddenly struck without warning from the rear. At the time they were driving between 20 and 25 miles an hour. Both were rendered unconscious and when they recovered consciousness their truck was overturned on the right shoulder of the road. Ahead of them 100 feet after they got out of their truck was the tractor-trailer and it was on fire. They saw the driver of the truck but his companion, Fred Smith, was lying on the pavement between the truck and the trailer and he was seriously injured. Later he died. The witness said he received no warning of the collision and there was no other car in the vicinity at the time. Traffic was light and they had passed a car several minutes prior to the accident but none was in sight at the time they were hit.

The claimant loss of the apples, destruction of their truck and also claim damages for personal injuries. Their lights were on and the truck was equipped with reflectors.

The defendant alleges that lights from an approaching car blinded the driver of the tractor-trailer and that inadequate lights on the apple truck prevented seeing it until it was too late to avoid an accident. The driver of the trailer claims that when he was able to see the apple truck ahead that the blinding lights passed he was close to the truck and tried to turn to the left to avoid an accident but that the difficulty in handling a tractor-truck vehicle in a short distance made such an attempt only partially successful. He claims that the inadequate lights on the vehicle ahead and the blinding lights of the approaching car combined to make the accident unavoidable. His truck also turned over and was burned. The accident took place about 3:30 o'clock in the morning.

Michael Nardone appears for plaintiffs with A. J. Cook and George F. Roesch appearing for the defendants.

Peekskill a City January 1, 1940

Albany, N. Y., March 30 (AP)—Dissolution of the village of Peekskill is declared and its status as a city, effective January 1, 1940, is established by a bill which Governor Lehman signed today.

The new law, providing a city charter for the territory within the present village boundaries, was sponsored by Democratic Senator James A. Garrity, Westchester county.

It stipulates that both elected and appointive officers of the present village government shall continue to serve until election of the first mayor under the new charter.

NATION THRILLED BY HIS PRAYER

New York school officials were thrilled by the panned prayer of this 16-year-old youngster who fled from Germany with his sister to escape persecution. It expressed his thanksgiving for the freedom of America, and is being sent to President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull for the whole nation to read. The youth, Martin Mardin, is shown with his mother, Mrs. Betty Mardin, saluting the flag.

Licenses Revoked And Suspended

Seven automobile drivers from this vicinity were affected by the recent action of Charles A. Harrell, commissioner of motor vehicles, depriving 1,260 of their privileges to operate cars on the public highways.

The four revocations in this area were:

Terry Staples, 72 Highland avenue, Kingston for driving while intoxicated.

Nick A. Savatky, Bloomington, reckless driving.

Floyd McGuano, 41 South Partition street, Saugerties, reckless driving.

Ambrose Ernest, Sande avenue, Milton, reckless driving.

Three suspensions:

Wesley Carter, 110A North street, Kingston, reckless driving.

John H. Richards, 4 Maiden Lane, Ellenville, reckless driving.

J. Rudolph Hohenberger, 100 Ten Broeck avenue, Kingston, cancellation of insurance policy.

In the Albany district there were 54 revocations and 63 suspensions. In New York city 164 revocations and 653 suspensions. In other parts of the state the revocations numbered 159 and the suspensions 284.

Royal Mistake

The eldest son of the king always bears the title of Prince of Wales and ranks next to the king in male precedence, but younger sons of the sovereign, though born princes, have no precedence beyond their near relationship to the king, until a dukedom is conferred upon them, when they become peers of the realm, says London Tit-Bits Magazine. Only the children, the brothers and sisters, the sisters or daughters-in-law, and the uncles and aunts of the king are entitled to be addressed as "Royal Highness." In the past this title has passed on indefinitely to all direct descendants of a king's son. But by the ruling of King George V in 1917, the title is confined to the children and grandchildren of the sovereign. The result will be that certain members of the royal house may in the future be plain Mr. or Miss Windsor.

$22,000,000 Value Put on Rail Passes

Washington. — Railroads are passing out approximately $22,000,000 worth of "Annie Oakleys" each year, according to estimates by the interstate commerce commission which frowns on the custom in making its annual report to congress.

In the first six months of 1937, the I. C. C. found, the large steam railroads gave passes to 3,204,968 persons, carrying them 601,000,000 passenger miles. This service was worth $11,333,734.

In other words, gratis rides by carriers involved a sum which, if collected, would have been 5.36 per cent of the actual passenger revenues, the I. C. C. reported. In some instances, it was found, the free transportation exceeded 10 per cent of the actual passenger revenues.

6 of Alleged Arson Ring Are Arrested

Fort Plain, N. Y., March 31 (AP) — Six men were in jail today after what District Attorney Charles S. Tracy described as the "end of a widely sought arson ring."

Their arrests here yesterday culminated what Tracy said was a series of lengthy investigations into various fires of "suspicious" origin in Montgomery, Fulton and adjoining counties.

The men, he added, were seized in the act of spraying inflammable chemicals over a restaurant here.

He said marked money, with which Carl Dunkel, restaurant owner, had paid the men to burn his building, was found on them.

Tracy booked the men as Thomas Lizio, Sr., Thomas Lizio, Jr., Carmella Rotaio and Frank Russell, all of Johnstown, N. Y.

Nick Staino, New York city and Timothy D'Arcangelo, of Fort Plain. He said they were arrested on a tip from Dunkel.

HOME BUREAU

Walkkill, March 31. — Pneumonia Control and Care of the Patient was the subject of the local Home Bureau on Tuesday afternoon at the Scout Cabin. Miss Mildred Moss, county health nurse, first gave an instructive talk on care of the patient and how to prevent spread of the disease, after which she gave a demonstration of bedside care with Mrs. George Sherwood as the patient. Mrs. Walter Davis, chairman, presided at the business meeting, at which a food sale was planned for Saturday, April 23, at Terwilliger and Sloan's store at 11 o'clock.

Asia First Home of Most of Domesticated Animals

Man has domesticated animals since his earliest days—before he learned to write, for among his earliest records are found drawings and other representations of some of the animals he had taken into his camps and dwelling places.

The continent of Asia seems to have been the place of origin of three-fourths of our domestic animals. Since the first home of man himself is usually also placed there this is not surprising.

It seems probable that all of these animals were first held captive by the early peoples for their food supply and that the other uses for them—for drawing loads, for riding, for giving protection, etc.—occurred to their captors afterward.

It is interesting to note that no new domestic animals have been developed in several thousand years, as far as records show, asserts a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. The llama, the alpaca and the turkey have become known to European peoples within that time, but they had long been in use among the inhabitants of the new world.

Cats, camels, most domestic cattle, horses, goats, sheep and most poultry are apparently Asiatic in origin. Dogs are perhaps Asiatic in origin, too, although this is less certain. The ass may have come from northern Africa, the reindeer from northern Europe.

SENATOR'S DAUGHTER WEDS

Miss Elizabeth Vandenberg, daughter of Michigan's Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, was married in New York to Edward J. Pfeiffer, a magazine executive. The couple is shown above.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Annual Chiefs Night
Saugerties, March 31.—The annual Chiefs Night of the Saugerties Fire Department will be held in the Phoenix Hotel on Partition street this evening with the principal speaker being the Hon. Seth T. Cole of Catskill.

Saugerties Baseball Team
Saugerties, March 31.—With the arrival of the baseball season soon to come and the completion of the new recreation field on upper Washington avenue, local sport fans are forming a plan to reorganize the Saugerties A. C. with Hugo Knauer as manager of this organization. The services of Vincent Kenney have been secured and he will act as secretary of the newly organized club which hopes to have a strong team in the field during the coming season, and with the cooperation of the public local baseball fans may look forward to a successful season ahead.

Lions Complete Plans Saugerties, March 31.—The Saugerties Lions Club has completed its plans for the annual ball which is to be held in Saugerties High School auditorium on Friday evening, April 29. Dr. Rodney Ball, chairman of the ticket committee and George Thornton, chairman of the entertainment committee. The Henry and His Aristocrats orchestra has been engaged. Ernest Snyder has charge of the decorations and it is expected to be along lines to tie in with the Apple Blossom Festival. The members are looking forward to a record crowd and proceeds will go toward the community sports and recreation program of the Lions Club for young people of the village.

Camp Committee Starts Work
Saugerties, March 31.—Fred S. Voorhis, of this village, chairman of the camp committee of the Boy Scout camp, has announced that the camp staff has been partly secured and expects to have it completed by April 15. Complete plans have been formed for the coming season and that the camp will operate from July 10 until August 6. The committee has a force busy at the present time making alterations and installing new equipment to meet the needs of the growth in the Greene-Ulster Boy Scout Camp for the season.

Jewish Youth Choose Officers

The Intercounty Jewish Youth Alliance held its annual meeting at the Workmen's Circle, Ellenville, Sunday afternoon, March 27.

Joseph Block of the Kingston High School faculty presided. Mr. Block reported on the recent state convention of Jewish Youth Alliances at Troy, New York.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Jack Bagieboer, Ellenville; vice-president, Joseph Farakas, Kingston; treasurer, Sam Stein, Kerhonkson; secretary, Bertie M. Lefkowitz, Spring Glen. Among the resolutions adopted was one endorsing Secretary Hull's plan on behalf of religious and political refugees, as confirming the traditional sympathy of the United States for such. A rising vote of thanks was extended the Jewish Agricultural Society for its cooperation and assistance during the past year. It is due to the efforts of the society that the Intercounty Jewish Youth Alliance came into existence and has grown.

Among the activities in which constituent organizations engaged in during the past year included, dramatic clubs, lectures, forums, athletics, dancing, classes and social and cultural activities.

The retiring president, Mr. Block, delivered a fine talk on "World Political Trends". Refreshments were served by the Ellenville Jewish Youth Alliance.

Yes, our land erosion is pretty bad, but the worst erosion in this country today is human.

Ahavath Israel Plans Activities

Tonight the Ladies' Auxiliary of Ahavath Israel will hold its monthly meeting at the vestry hall at Wurts and Spring streets. Matters of importance will be discussed. The sermon delivered by the Rev. Robbins E. Ralph, minister of the Court Street Congregational Church will be read. The title is "Let's be Christian to the Jews." Vocal selections will follow and refreshments will be served.

Friday sunset services will begin at 5:50. Friday night late services will begin at 7:45. Rabbi Maratek will speak on "Our Responsibility Toward One Another." The Kingston Hebrew choir will participate in the services.

Saturday morning services will begin at 9. Sabbath school and story Telling Hour will begin at 3.

Sunday school will begin at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning. Tuesday afternoon the A. I. Juniors will meet at the home of Rabbi Maratek. Men's Club will meet at 9. Wednesday the Youth of Israel group will meet at 8:30. The Bible course will be resumed Thursday night.

Expect Aldermen To Repeal Chester By-pass Truck Law

Following the recommendation of the traffic control committee of the common council that the present traffic regulation in force on East Chester street be rescinded, it is expected that the laws and rules committee will submit an ordinance at the regular monthly council meeting next Tuesday evening carrying out the report's recommendation.

The traffic control committee report recommending that the rule prohibiting heavy truck traffic over East Chester street in a northerly direction between the hours of 10 o'clock in the evening and 8 o'clock in the morning be repealed, was adopted by unanimous vote of the council at a special meeting held earlier in the month.

The report followed the holding of a public hearing by the committee which was the largest attended hearing ever held in the council chambers of the city hall.

Judging from the action of the council in unanimously adopting the committee's report there appears no question but the ordinance expected to be submitted will be adopted.

TILLSON

Tillson, March 30—Usual services in both the Reformed and Friends Churches next Sunday: Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Church service at 11 o'clock. A cordial welcome awaits you.

Miss Sadie Schutt and Everett Schutt and family called on relatives in Tillson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Leonard Clark went with her daughter, Mrs. H. Cameron, to Colgate University on Friday to bring Raymond Quick home for his spring vacation.

Mrs. Emerick is spending a couple days in Kingston with her sister.

Mrs. Rutkay spent the weekend with her husband in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Haines spent a few days last week with relatives in Durham and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Christiana spent last Sunday with her sister in Canaan, Conn.

Distributed "Mourning Rings"
In George Washington's day the custom of distributing "mourning rings" among relatives and close friends was common. When a person felt that he had only a short while to live he would order a supply of rings made up, into which could be inserted strands of his hair. A Smithsonian institution collection contains several "mourning rings" of less notable individuals of Revolutionary days. The strands of hair in the Washington ring are gray. Washington in his younger days had sandy hair.

Looks as if there'll be too many vacations this summer.

Apple Recipes From the Nation's Best

An additional set of recipes from Louis Diat, chef des cuisines, Ritz Carlton Hotel, gives the following tasty recipes for apple dishes:

Apple Charlotte.
Slice finely some apples and saute them in butter, add a little sugar and flavor with lemon. Keep the apples as dry as possible. On the other hand, prepare some thin slices of sandwich bread, dip them one by one in melted butter and line a charlotte mould with them. Fill up the mould with the apples and bake till a nice golden brown. Turn out; and serve with hot apricot sauce either around the charlotte or separately.

Fried Apples.
Fried apples may be used to garnish geese, ducks, suckling pigs, etc. Apples served with fatty meats, as pork, sausages, sausages cakes, etc., aid the digestion of these meats. (The apples should be sauteed in butter and placed around the dish.)

Tapioca and Apple Pudding.
(For about 6 persons.)
Cut in some apples in thin quarters, saute them in butter. Cook two cupsful of tapioca in half

Valley Firemen Will Parade in Hudson June 25

The 1938 convention of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association will be held in Hudson on June 22 to 25 and the annual parade will be held on the afternoon of June 25, when some 8,000 firemen are expected to march.

So far none of the Kingston fire companies have taken any action on whether they will take part in the big parade in Hudson in June or not.

The Hudson fire department is planning to make the annual convention to be held there one of the best in the long series of conventions held by the valley firemen.

Ellenville Parade

It is expected, however, that several Kingston companies will take part in the big firemen's parade to be held in Ellenville, the latter part of July as part of the annual convention of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association convention.

Last year the convention and parade was held in Port Ewen, and was a big success.

ASHOKAN

Ashokan, March 30—Mesdames Sarah and Laura Elmendorf called on Miss Bertha Green recently.

Mrs. Sarah Bell is quite ill at her home in Shokan.

Mrs. Irene Stevens of Kingston has visited her niece, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Siekler, and her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carter, for 10 days.

Mrs. Chester Lyons has recovered from her severe attack of grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Saxton of Poughkeepsie is visiting his mother, Mrs. Reynolds Bishop, at the Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyser called on their nephew, George Becker, in Lanesville on Sunday.

Mrs. James Rush and son, Arthur, of Olive Bridge, called on her mother, Mrs. Arthur Carter, on Monday.

Riley Sanford, New York Central Railroad agent here, will return to his regular position as agent at Big Indian Friday after serving this station during the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, who have occupied the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Barclay, have made many friends who will regret their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyser made calls in Kingston on Thursday.

Alozo Haver and Mrs. Ella Brannen called on Mr. and Mrs. Noah Barringer Sunday. Mrs. Barringer is under the care of a physician.

Mrs. Lester Lawrence called on Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bell and daughter, Chloe, Sunday evening.

Edward Avery of West Shokan was a caller here Tuesday.

Grant Lennox of Valley Stream spent the week-end with Louis Theil.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elmendorf called on Mr. and Mrs. Perry Davis in Atwood Sunday and also visited Woodstock.

Tourist Institute On April 7 to Talk Festival Phases

A tourist institute will be held at the Governor Clinton Hotel at 2 o'clock on April 7 under the auspices of the Ulster County Home Bureau. Various phases of the tourist business will be discussed. What tourists like about a tourist home, laws governing tourists homes, beds and bedding, table set ups. There will be a discussion period following the speaking.

This meeting is planned to serve all those who would like to get ideas on how to accommodate tourists most satisfactorily. Speakers at the forum are individuals who know from practical experience what can and should be done.

With the Apple Blossom Festival coming soon it is the aim of the Ulster County Home Bureau to show how a room can be arranged to house the tourist and most comfortably with the smallest amount of money. A room will be set up in the window of the Hardenbergh Furniture Co., Main street, Kingston the week of April 4.

Famous Cathedral in Havana

The cathedral of Havana is a famous church. It is built of native limestone; it is also the most noteworthy architecturally. It was erected between 1556 and 1724 and was long believed to shelter the bones of Columbus. Historians dispute about his tomb, some holding that it is in Santo Domingo, whence his bones were supposed to have been taken some decades after his death, some holding that it is in Havana and some in Spain.

Pleads Guilty to Operation of Still

New York, March 30.—(Special)—On his plea of guilty to federal court here today before Judge Alfred C. Cox, Joseph Lopresti of Walkkill received a suspended sentence of a year and a half for the possession and operation of a still on his farm. He will be on probation for three years.

Lopresti was arrested on October 30, 1936, when agents raided the farm, seizing a 500-gallon still and 5,000 gallons of mash. Eleven others were indicted with Lopresti. Their cases are still pending.

College for Poor White Orphans
Gardner college at Philadelphia, Pa., is an institution for the vocational education and maintenance of poor white male orphans, as the donor of the trust fund expressed it. The college was founded under the will of Stephen Girard and opened January 1, 1848. By a provision in the will no ecclesiastic, missionary, or minister of any sect whatever is permitted to hold office in this institution or to enter its premises at any time or for any reason. That provision should, however, not be interpreted as a restriction upon any sect or person; on the contrary, the founder's desire was, as he himself stated, simply that the minds of the boys reared by the institution should be kept free from the confusion of denominational controversies so that on their entrance into active life they may adopt such religious tenets as their natural reason may enable them to prefer. The purest principles of morality were to be inculcated into the minds of the scholars.

Hudson's Bay Company Ruled
For nearly 200 years the Hudson's Bay company ruled huge portions of Canada. Wherever it established a trading post it had the right to govern, says the Washington Post. Company men trapped and hunted for some furs, bartered with savage Indians for others. They lived in isolated fort-like posts, often saw other white men only twice a year. They had to be fighters. Disgruntled Indians, competing traders frequently attacked their posts.

What the world needs is less political ideology and more milk and spinach.

START WITH A THREE-DAY LIQUID DIET

Gone forever—the slim, lovely figure she had as a bride? Beneath those layers of flesh it's still there!

Fewer fattening calories for a while—a quick melting of that stored-up fat—and magically the trim graceful lines of youth are back again.

A miracle? Any woman can work it. First break off old eating habits with a three-day liquid diet. Forget about those weight-builders—chocolate soda, lemon-meringue pie—and think of the low-calory substitutes you're going to enjoy—lemon ice, cream meringue pie.

Best, on the three liquid diet days, to be as inactive as you can. The time flashes by as you rest and read or sew—and how refreshed you feel, eager for the next step in your reducing program—appetizing low-calory meals.

Doesn't this sample dinner sound tempting? Sardine canapés, 2 stalks celery, browned slice lean roast beef, ½ cup squash, 1 cup string beans, ½ cup fruit ice cream. Only 642 calories.

Good substantial food—you see—based on the protective diet which keeps your eyes bright, flesh firm, cheeks rosy.

What to do about adapting your diet to family meals? Easy with a calory chart to guide you. Put mayonnaise on the family salads—it has 100 calories a tablespoonful. Use mineral oil dressing on yours—about 5 calories a tablespoonful.

Our 40-page booklet, CHANGE YOUR WEIGHT FOR BEAUTY'S SAKE, gives you two weeks' low-calory menus; calory chart. Exercises. How to gain, too.

Meet At 7 P. M.

Members of the American Legion drum corps will meet at Academy Green tonight at 7 o'clock to take part in the parade for the Spring Opening of the up-town business section, sponsored by the merchants.

The boundary between Canada and the United States has a length of 5,000 miles, of which 3,100 miles are land boundary and 2,400 are water boundary.

Is This the Reason You Are Constipated?

If you're wondering why your bowels don't work right—stop and think about what you eat. Bread, meat, eggs and potatoes. All good nourishing foods—but all concentrated, lacking in "bulk." And you need "bulk"! Some food that forms a soft, spongy mass in the bowels—helps them move.

If it's this lack of "bulk" that's causing your constipation, Kellogg's All-Bran is just what you need. It soaks up water and softens like a sponge. And this soft mass helps your bowels move. In addition, All-Bran gives you Nature's great intestinal tonic, Vitamin B. Eat this crisp crunchy cereal every day, drink plenty of water, and enjoy happier days. All-Bran is made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.
